

1. PHONETIC WORD PARTS

This _____ has healthy, smooth feathers, but a hurt leg. How could we prevent her from pulling a bandage _____?

2. UNDERSTANDING WORD MEANINGS

An immediate answer to your question is one that (you want, you get right away, is right).
 If a friend eats an entire pie, he or she eats (all of it, strawberries, no crumbs).

3. SPELLING BY THE RULES

Ch, sh, s, z, x at the end?

search + s _____

Then here comes -es around the bend!

address + s _____

poster + s _____

4. SYNONYMS, ANTONYMS, & HOMONYMS

_____ and _____ have similar meanings. They are synonyms.

peace
piece calm _____ and _____ sound alike. They are _____.

5. COMPOUND WORDS

Madge plopped into the overstuffed chair to _____ about horses.

day

She set the table with the _____ saucers, not the special ones.

every

dream

6. PREFIXES & SUFFIXES

A snake that will not hurt people is called a _____ snake.

harmless

Luckily, the passengers in the wrecked car were _____.

harmful

unharmful

7. VERB AGREEMENT & VERB TENSE

I fly airplanes. Last night I _____ to Austin. I have _____ across our country.

Angela stretched, hopped from bed, washed her face and _____ her hair. (comb)

8. CONSTRUCTING COMPLETE SENTENCES

_____ had a grape juice stain on it.

A. Instead of grapefruit

B. Frightened by a spider

C. The pillowcase

I am certain that _____

9. PRONOUN REFERENTS

Bumblebees appear to be too big and too heavy to fly, but they do it anyway!

they = _____

it = _____

10. ALPHABETICAL ORDER

Words from the index of a science book:

solar wind _____

sunspots _____

salt _____

solar heat _____

BONUS: READING FLUENCY

I reread the entire page silently. I read the page aloud with expression, striving for the speed at which I speak.